The Honorable Norman Y. Mineta
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Mr. Mineta:

I wish to express my deepest appreciation to you for honoring us with your presence during the Agency's commemoration of Asian/Pacific American Heritage Week. The keynote address that you delivered on 10 May 1984 was very favorably received by employees of the Agency in general, and Asian/Pacific Americans in particular.

We will soon forward you photographs taken during your presentation at the Agency.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey

Dear Mr. Mineta:

Our Nation will observe Asian-Pacific American Heritage Week from 5 to 12 May 1984. The Central Intelligence Agency welcomes the opportunity to join other Federal agencies in recognizing the varied contributions to our Nation by Asian-Pacific Americans.

We are honored that you have accepted our invitation to serve as keynote speaker at our Headquarters Auditorium at 10:00 a.m. on Thursday, 10 May, in observance of this occasion.

We look forward to your visit and appreciate your acceptance as keynote speaker.

Sincerely,

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence

MEMORANDUM FOR: Executive Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: Avon O. Harding
Director of Equal Employment Opportunity

SUBJECT: Request for Introduction of Keynote Speaker for the Asian-Pacific American Heritage Week

1. The Office of Equal Employment Opportunity is pleased to inform you that Congressman Norman Y. Mineta has accepted our invitation to serve as the keynote speaker for the Agency's program to observe the Asian-Pacific American Heritage Week. This program is scheduled for 1000 hours on Thursday, 10 May 1984, in the Headquarters Auditorium.

2. It would be an honor for this office if you would introduce Congressman Mineta. The Director of Central Intelligence has indicated that he would like to meet the Congressman for a few minutes before the program. May I suggest that you, Congressman Mineta, our Asian-Pacific American Program Manager, [redacted] and I meet informally at 0945 hours in the Office of the Director before the program.

3. [redacted] will contact your office in the next few days to confirm your availability on the above date. I hope you will be able to join us in commemorating the forthcoming Asian-Pacific American Heritage Week.
